DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

28 Defendants.

Plaintiff ERATE.COM, INC., for its Complaint against Defendants GATEWAY FUNDING DIVERSIFIED MORTGAGE SERVICES, L.P., GATEWAY FUNDING, INC., (the two Gateway defendants are collectively “GATEWAY FUNDING”); FIRST FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC. (“FFSI”), FINANCE OF AMERICA MORTGAGE LLC, DBA “eRates Mortgage” (“FOAM”), BRUNO PASCERI, and KYLE KILPATRICK (collectively “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This case arises from Defendants’ willful infringement of Plaintiff’s incontestable U.S. Trademark Registration No. 4,041,200 for the word mark ERATE®. A true and correct copy of this Registration is attached as Exhibit A.

2. Plaintiff has been using the word mark ERATE® to offer mortgage and personal finance related services on its website erate.com since the year 2000. In the last 17 years, Plaintiff has built its erate.com website into California’s most popular mortgage broker website, with millions of unique visitors. In fact, since 2005 Plaintiff’s Google Adwords advertisements have received over 130 million impressions. These ads viewed by consumers promoted Plaintiff’s desktop website, mobile website and various apps. Additionally Plaintiff used Apple’s iAd App Network and Yahoo’s Flurry Analytics to deliver well over 100 Million more ads of ERATE®.

3. Defendants started doing business at the confusingly similar website eratesmortgage.com in late 2014. Within a few months, customers began actually confusing Plaintiff with Defendants, with Defendants’ customers mistakenly sending to Plaintiff their complaints about Defendants’ business practices.

4. Public mortgage industry records and reports indicate that Defendant FOAM—which does business as “eRates Mortgage”—was (according to one published list) ranked as the eleventh-largest non-bank mortgage lender by “Top Overall Volume” in the year 2015, originating nearly $12.3 billion in home loans, closing over 45,000 loans in all 50 states. The same public industry records show that Defendant FOAM is the only mortgage lender on the entire list with less than 6 years of existence; Defendant FOAM made #11 on the list in its first full year of existence. Upon information and belief, Defendant FOAM could not have achieved this success so quickly without hijacking and misappropriating Plaintiff's ERATE® incontestable trademark.

5. In May 2016, Plaintiff sent a cease and desist letter to Defendants. Plaintiff informed Defendants of its trademark for ERATE® and demanded that Defendants stop confusing customers by using the eratesmortgage.com website. Defendants, however, refused to stop doing business at the eratesmortgage.com website and as eRates Mortgage on various third party websites such as Zillow, Bankrate, Costco, and LendingTree.

6. Having no other option, Plaintiff now brings this lawsuit in order to (1) enforce its trademark rights in the mark ERATE®, (2) to protect its hard-earned reputation and business at erate.com from being confused with Defendants' eratesmortgage.com website, (3) to protect its business from being confused with Defendants' infringing business name and Defendants' "dba" eRates Mortgage, and (4) to prevent its phone number 888-88-ERATE (888-883-7283) from being confused with Defendants' 855-MY-ERATE (855-693-7283) phone number.

II. PARTIES

7. Plaintiff ERATE.COM, INC. is a California corporation first incorporated in 2000. Plaintiff has been conducting mortgage and personal finance related services and business activities at the website erate.com since its incorporation.

8. Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING DIVERSIFIED MORTGAGE SERVICES, L.P. is a Pennsylvania limited partnership that maintained its principal place of business in Horsham, Pennsylvania. Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING, INC. is a Pennsylvania corporation that maintained its principal place of business in Horsham, Pennsylvania. Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING, INC. has been and is the sole general partner of Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING DIVERSIFIED MORTGAGE SERVICES, L.P. These two defendants are collectively referred to as "GATEWAY FUNDING."

1 9. Upon information and belief, Defendant FOAM is the successor-in-interest to
2 Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING. Upon information and belief, Defendant FOAM was either
3 previously known as Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING or purchased Defendant GATEWAY
4 FUNDING. Upon information and belief, today, Defendant FOAM uses Defendant GATEWAY
5 FUNDING's prior address in Horsham, Pennsylvania as one of FOAM's business addresses.

6 10. Defendant FFSI is based in Charlotte, North Carolina, at 6230 Fairview Road,
7 Suite 425, zip code 28210. Upon information and belief, FFSI is no longer in business and 8 Defendant FOAM is the successor-in-interest to FFSI.

9 11. Defendant FOAM is headquartered in Charlotte, North Carolina, at 6230
10 Fairview Road, Suite 425, zip code 28210, and does business as "eRates Mortgage." Upon 11 information and belief, Defendant FOAM has branch offices in the State of California. Upon
12 information and belief, the largest portion of Defendant FOAM's business under the eRates
13 Mortgage business name is conducted in the State of California.

14 12. Defendant BRUNO PASCERI is the former CEO of Defendant GATEWAY
15 FUNDING and is the current CEO and/or President of Defendant FOAM. Upon information
16 and belief, Defendant PASCERI is based in the Greater Philadelphia Area, but regularly travels
17 to and conducts business in the State of California.

18 13. Defendant KYLE KILPATRICK is the former Executive Vice President and 19 director of Defendant FFSI, and is currently the President of eRates Mortgage, which upon 20 information and belief, is the same or an affiliated company to Defendant FOAM. Upon 21 information and belief, Defendant KILPATRIK resides in Charlotte, North Carolina, but 22 regularly travels to and conducts business in the State of California.

23 14. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate otherwise of 24 Defendants DOES 1-10 inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sue them by such 25 fictitious names. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend this complaint to allege their true names and 26 capacities when they have been ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believe and thereon allege 27 that each of the fictitiously named Defendants is responsible in some manner for the 28 occurrences herein alleged and that those Defendants proximately caused Plaintiff's damages.

At all times herein mentioned, all named Defendants and the DOE Defendants were the agents, servants, employees or attorneys of their co-defendants, and in doing the things hereinafter alleged were acting within the course and scope of their authority as those agents, servants, employees or attorneys, and with the permission and consent of their co-defendants.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's federal question/federal law claims for trademark infringement, false designation of origin, and unfair competition claims under Section 39 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1121, and under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a) & (b).

16. Upon information and belief, the Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because they regularly solicit, transact, and do business within California and this district, and the claims in this action arise out of such business.

17. Upon information and belief, Defendants have caused and are causing injury within this district by infringing Plaintiff's incontestable ERATE® trademark registration.

18. Venue is appropriate in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district and because a substantial part of the events giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in this district.

IV. ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

A. Plaintiff's Extensive and Exclusive Use of ERATE®

19. Plaintiff launched its mortgage business in 2000 at www.erate.com. Between 2000 and 2006, Plaintiff brokered millions of dollars in mortgages. Plaintiff's business was not limited to the erate.com website; for example, in 2003, Plaintiff had the below large format billboard on the 101 freeway in San Jose.

20. Starting in 2006, Plaintiff partnered with others in the mortgage industry to create hundreds and eventually thousands of pages of dynamic mortgage rate content, including publishing the rates and fees of dozens of third party mortgage lenders.

21. Starting in 2009, Plaintiff launched its @ERATE Twitter account, which automatically quoted the lowest mortgage rates reported throughout the day. @ERATE has tweeted over 20,000 times and has over 14,000 followers. Later, Plaintiff also set up separate Twitter accounts for each state in the U.S. (since mortgage rates and fees vary state to state).

22. Also in 2009, Plaintiff created mortgage-related applications for Apple and Android phones and tablets. For example, on May 2, 2011, the ERATE application was the #6 app overall listed in Apple's "Top Free iPhone Finance Apps" ("May 2, 2011 Screenshot"). Another screen shot from iTunes in August, 2011 ("August 2011 Screenshot") shows ERATE application ranked #12 overall. These screen shots are below:

August 2011 Screenshot of ERATE Application (#12 of Top Free iPhone Finance Apps)

23. Since 2006, not including views on Twitter and downloads of mortgage-related apps, the erate.com website alone has logged nearly 6 million users viewing over 26 million page views in nearly 8 million unique sessions. In fact, since 2005 Plaintiff's Google Adwords advertisements have received over 130 million impressions. These ads viewed by consumers promoted Plaintiff's desktop website, mobile website and various apps. Additionally Plaintiff used Apple's iAd App Network and Yahoo's Flurry Analytics to deliver well over 100 Million more ads of ERATE®.

B. Defendants' Negative Reputation in the Mortgage Business

24. Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING has long had an awful reputation in the mortgage industry. For example, in late December 2008, the Federal Trade Commission sued Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING for violating federal law by charging African-American and Hispanic consumers higher prices for mortgage loans when compared to non-Hispanic white consumers. As such, the FTC found that Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING violated the Equal Credit Opportunity Act in pricing both prime and subprime mortgage loans.

25. Ultimately, Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING settled with the FTC for $2.9 million, but was allowed to pay much less due to financial reasons as well as implementation of a fair lending training program and a fair lending monitoring program. Further information can be found at the following website: <https://www.ftc.gov/news-events/press-releases/2008/12/mortgage-lender-agrees-settle-ftc-charges-it-charged-african>.

26. Unfortunately, Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING failed to live up to the terms of its settlement with the FTC. In January 2010, the FTC entered into a modified settlement with GATEWAY FUNDING, requiring it to hire a third-party consultant to assist it in developing a fair lending compliance and monitoring program.

27. In 2013, the California Department of Oversight announced a settlement with GATEWAY FUNDING, which had been found to be overcharging borrowers for interest before disbursement of their loans. GATEWAY FUNDING had to refund the overcharged interest (plus 10%), and also pay $56,000 in penalties. Further information about this settlement can be found here:

1 http://www.dbo.ca.gov/Publications/bulletins/volume01/page/monthly_bulletin_volume_01_iss
2 ue_02.asp and here: http://www.dbo.ca.gov/Press/press_releases/Gateway_Funding.pdf

3 28. Similarly, Defendant FFSI also has a horrible reputation with consumers in the 4 mortgage industry. As of late 2014, FFSI's website claimed that it was a BBB Accredited
5 Business with an "A+" rating. Upon information and belief, this was a false claim. As of 6 February 2015, the Better Business Bureau of North Carolina showed that Defendant FFSI's
7 rating was a "C-" (on a scale of A to F). Upon information and belief, FFSI later merged or was 8 acquired by GATEWAY and/or FOAM, and part of the reason for this merger/acquisition and 9 later name change to eRates Mortgage was due to FFSI's negative reputation in the mortgage 10 industry.

11 29. On the real estate website Zillow, there are over 100 negative reviews for "erates
12 mortgage." On the consumer-ratings website Yelp, over 80% of the reviews for "erates
13 mortgage" are negative. ERATE® has never had a negative review.

14 30. Given the negative reputations of these three Defendant companies, Plaintiff
15 understandably does not wish to be associated with the corporate Defendants in any way
16 whatsoever.

17 C. Defendants' Infringing Use of the ERATE® Mark

18 31. In or about October 2011, Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING registered the 19 eratesmortgage.com website. However, upon information and belief, there was no content on this 20 website for nearly three years.

21 32. Upon information and belief, some time prior to August 2014, Defendant
22 GATEWAY FUNDING purchased Defendant FFSI's call center and website because Defendant
23 FFSI was getting ready to go out of business due to its horrible reputation among consumers.
24 After purchasing the FFSI call center and website, Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING then re-
25 named the call center "ERATES MORTGAGE".

26 33. In or about August 2014, Defendant FFSI had a mortgage-related website at 27 www.ffsmortgage.com. Upon information and belief, Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING
28 decided to take the content from the FFSI website (at www.ffsmortgage.com), modify it just a bit, and then repost that content on the eratesmortgage.com website. Exhibit B is a side-by-side screenshot showing the similarities between the FFSI website and the GATEWAY FUNDING website at eratesmortgage.com.

34. Within a few months of the August 2014 launch of the eratesmortgage.com, Plaintiff began receiving misdirected inquiries from confused customers, by email, by letter, by telephone, and also through searches for “erates” instead of “erate.” For example, on January 5, 2015, a lawyer named Joel Uher sent a demand letter to Plaintiff about an unsatisfactory appraisal done on a property in Sacramento, CA by Central Valley Appraisal Group. This letter was addressed to Christopher C. Manzella, who upon information and belief, was a loan officer at eRates Mortgage. Since then, Plaintiff has received well over 20 instances of mis-directed phone calls, letters, and/or emails from Defendants’ disgruntled customers.

35. Defendants have continuously used the eratesmortgage.com website to engage in the mortgage business since late August 2014. Public industry records show that Defendant FOAM was the 11th largest mortgage lender by “Top Overall Volume” in the year 2015, originating nearly $12.3 billion in home loans, closing over 45,000 loans in all 50 states. The same public industry records show that Defendant FOAM is the only mortgage lender on the entire list with less than 6 years of existence; Defendant FOAM made #11 on the list in its first full year of existence. Upon information and belief, Defendant FOAM could not have achieved this rapid success without stealing Plaintiff’s ERATE® incontestable trademark.

36. Upon information and belief, in April 2015, the Blackstone Group bought Defendant GATEWAY FUNDING, changing the name from GATEWAY FUNDING to Defendant FOAM.

D. Defendants’ Willful Disregard of Plaintiff’s Intellectual Property

37. Upon information and belief, Defendants were always aware of Plaintiff’s ERATE® website and registered trademark both before and at the time their infringement began.

38. Defendants KILPATRICK and FFSI were aware of Plaintiff’s erate.com website and its ERATE® mark. From 1997 to 2005, Defendant KILPATRICK took an

1 executive position at Ditech, whose mortgage rates were prominently displayed on Plaintiff's
2 ERATE® homepage. From 2005 to 2008, Defendant KILPATRICK took another executive
3 position at LendingTree, with which Plaintiff worked closely in providing certain leads. As a
4 high-level executive at both Ditech and LendingTree, Defendant KILPATRICK was fully aware
5 of Plaintiff's website and trademarks upon joining FFSI as its Executive Vice President and 6 director of FFSI in April 2011.

7 39. With Defendant KILPATRICK on its leadership team, Defendant FFSI and 8 Plaintiff had a business relationship for over two years between July 2011 and the Fall of 2013,
9 during which FFSI spent over $25,000 advertising on Plaintiff's website. Defendant FFSI was 10 indisputably aware of Plaintiff's website before beginning the operation of eratesmortgage.com
11 in 2014. Exhibit C is a screenshot of FFSI's advertisements on Plaintiff's website from 12 November 2012. Defendant KILPATRICK continued to serve as both Executive Vice President
13 and director of FFSI until May 2014.

14 40. Likewise, Defendants GATEWAY FUNDING and PASCERI was well aware 15 of Plaintiff's website and trademark. Upon information and belief, in January 2013, March
16 2014, August 2014, and again in October 2014, someone from the IP address for Defendant
17 GATEWAY FUNDING in Horsham, Pennsylvania visited Plaintiff's erate.com website. This is 18 further evidence that Defendants knew about Plaintiff's website and registered trademark, but 19 decided to move ahead anyway with their eratesmortgage.com website. Further, Defendant
20 PASCERI—current CEO and President of FOAM—would also have been aware of Plaintiff's
21 website and ERATE® mark, having served as President and/or CEO of GATEWAY FUNDING
22 at all relevant times before GATEWAY FUNDING became FOAM.

23 41. Defendants KILPATRICK, PASCERI, and FOAM were aware of Plaintiff's
24 website and trademark, and willfully disregarded Plaintiff's rights. As noted above,
25 Defendant KILPATRICK—current President of eRates Mortgage—was unquestionably aware
26 of Plaintiff's website and trademark through his tenure as Executive Vice President and Director
27 of FFSI from 2011 to 2014. Moreover, Defendant PASCERI was also unquestionably aware of 28

1 Plaintiff's website and trademark through his tenure as President and/or CEO of GATEWAY
2 FUNDING at all relevant time periods..

3 42. Upon information and belief, Defendants KILPATRICK and PASCERI are 4 responsible for eRates Mortgage's and/or FOAM's advertising and marketing, manage both the 5 company's website and internet accounts, and run the company's day-to-day operations.
6 Notwithstanding their knowledge of Plaintiff's protected intellectual property, Defendants
7 KILPATRICK and PASCERI directed eRates Mortgage/FOAM to misappropriate Plaintiff's
8 goodwill and reputation in the mortgage industry by infringing on Plaintiff's ERATE® mark.

9 43. In May 2016, having learned of Defendants' adoption and use of the ERATE®
10 mark because of incidents of actual confusion, Plaintiff sent Defendant FOAM a cease and 11 desist letter specifically addressed to Defendant PASCERI asking that FOAM immediately
12 and voluntarily discontinue their infringing use of the ERATE® mark. A true and correct copy
13 of Plaintiff's cease and desist letter is attached as Exhibit D.

14 44. Under Defendants PASCERI's and KILPATRICK's direction, Defendant FOAM
15 d/b/a eRates Mortgage refused to cease its infringement of Plaintiff's trademark, instead
16 threatening to sue Plaintiff for defamation and other business torts.

17 45. Since May 2016, Defendant FOAM has continued to use the ERATE® mark in 18 conducting its business, including at the eratesmortgage.com website, as well as on various third
19 party websites such as Zillow, Bank Rate, and LendingTree. Upon information and belief, 20 Defendants KILPATRICK and PASCERI are responsible for FOAM's infringing use of 21 ERATE® mark, and willfully and intentionally directed and continues to direct FOAM to 22 infringe on Plaintiff's ERATE® mark so that the company can benefit from Plaintiff's business
23 and goodwill.

V. CAUSES OF ACTION AND PRAYER FOR RELIEF

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Trademark Infringement)

46. Plaintiff re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs and incorporates them as if fully set forth herein.

47. Defendants' eratesmortgage.com website and business name "eRates Mortgage", as described above, is confusingly similar to Plaintiff's ERATE® trademark and infringes that trademark.

48. Defendants' unauthorized use of ERATE® in the dominant portion of the eratesmortgage.com website, in their toll-free phone number, on third party websites (like Zillow), and as their "DBA eRates Mortgage" has and is likely to continue to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive the public as to the approval, sponsorship, license, or origin of Defendants' services. It will cause consumers to believe falsely that Defendants' services are licensed, sponsored, endorsed by, transported by, or otherwise affiliated with Plaintiff. In the alternative, it will cause consumers to believe falsely that Plaintiff's services are licensed, sponsored, endorsed by, transported by, or otherwise affiliated with Defendants.

49. Defendants' unlawful actions have been conducted in commerce and have affected, and will continue to affect, Plaintiff's business of promoting and offering mortgage services under Plaintiff's ERATE® trademark, and therefore constitute trademark infringement in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

50. Defendants' unlawful actions also constitute trademark infringement in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 14245 and the common law.

51. Upon information and belief, Defendants' acts of trademark infringement have been done willfully and deliberately, by copying and using Plaintiff's erate.com website and copying and using Plaintiff's ERATE® trademark registration, particularly since Defendants have had actual knowledge of Plaintiff's ERATE® trademark for years and have still refused to discontinue its use.

52. Defendants' unlawful actions described above have caused injury and damages to Plaintiff, and have caused irreparable injury to Plaintiff's goodwill and reputation, and will continue to do so unless enjoined by the Court.

53. Plaintiff has been damaged as a result of the Defendants' infringement of its trademark. Defendants' use of the Infringing Mark has greatly injured Plaintiff's general reputation causing Plaintiff damage in an amount not yet ascertainable, but will be determined at trial.

54. Upon information and belief, Defendants have derived and received, from the aforesaid acts of infringement, gains, profits, and advantages in an amount not yet ascertainable, but will be determined at trial.

55. Upon information and belief, the intentional nature of Defendants' actions make this an exceptional case under 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a).

56. Upon information and belief, Defendants' willful and deliberate actions were committed in bad faith and with the intent to cause confusion and mistake, and to deceive the consuming public as to source, sponsorship, and/or affiliation. As the acts alleged herein constitute a willful violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114 and Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 14245, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief as well as monetary damages and other remedies provided by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1116, 1117, and 1118, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 14245 and 14250, and the common law, including but not limited to Defendants' profits, treble damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and prejudgment interest.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(False Designation of Origin)

57. Plaintiff re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs and incorporates them as if fully set forth herein.

58. Defendants' actions as described herein constitute direct and/or contributory violation of 15 U.S.C. §1125(a)(1)(A), as such actions are likely to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive as to regarding the origin, sponsorship, and/or approval of Defendants' services by Plaintiff, or vice versa. These acts amount to false designation of origin.

1 59. Plaintiff has been damaged as a result of the Defendants' false designation of 2 origin. Defendants' unauthorized use of ERATE® in the dominant portion of the 3 eratesmortgage.com website, in their toll-free phone number, on third party websites (like
4 Zillow), and as their "DBA eRates Mortgage", as described above, has greatly injured Plaintiff's
5 general reputation causing Plaintiff damage in an amount not yet ascertainable, but will be 6 determined at trial.

7 60. Upon information and belief, Defendants have derived and received from the 8 aforesaid acts of infringement, gains, profits, and advantages in an amount not yet ascertainable,
9 but will be determined at trial.

10 61. Upon information and belief, Defendants acted intentionally and/or willfully,
11 knowing that Plaintiff had long had the erate.com website and had long had a registered
12 trademark for ERATE®, and knowing that Defendants did not have authorization to use said 13 mark.

14 62. Defendants' unlawful actions described above have caused injury and damages to 15 Plaintiff, and have caused irreparable injury to Plaintiff's goodwill and reputation, and will 16 continue to do so unless enjoined by the Court.

17 63. Upon information and belief, Defendants' willful and deliberate actions were 18 committed in bad faith and with the intent to cause confusion and mistake, and to deceive the 19 consuming public as to the source, sponsorship, and/or affiliation. As the acts alleged herein
20 constitute a willful violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c), Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief as 21 well as monetary damages and other remedies provided by 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1116, 1117, and
22 1118, and common law, including but not limited to Defendants' profits, treble damages,
23 reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and prejudgment interest.

24 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Unfair Competition under Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200)

26 64. Plaintiff re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs and incorporates them as if fully set
27 forth herein.
28

65. Defendants' unlawful actions described herein constitute unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent business acts or practices. Defendants' actions thus constitute "unfair competition" pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq. Defendants' action also constitute unfair competition under the common law.

66. Plaintiff has suffered an injury in fact, including without limitation, damages in an amount to be proven at trial, loss of money, and diminution in the value of the ERATE® trademark and goodwill, as a proximate result of Defendants' unfair competition.

67. Plaintiff requests disgorgement of all profits which Defendants wrongfully obtained by their unfair competition, and restitution to Plaintiff in an amount to be proven at trial.

68. Defendants' actions have caused, and will continue to cause Plaintiff to suffer irreparable harm unless enjoined by this Court.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows as to each Defendant with respect to each claim for relief:

1. For a judgment that Defendants, their officers, agents, distributors, employees, attorneys, subsidiaries, assigns or related companies, and those in active concert or participation with any of them, be permanently enjoined from using or employing, directly or indirectly, the ERATE® trademark, or any trademark, logo, or device that is confusingly similar to the ERATE® trademark, or is likely to confuse or deceive as to the affiliation, connection, sponsorship, or association of Defendants' commercial activities with Plaintiff or the ERATE® mark;

2. That Defendants be directed to file with this Court, within thirty days after entry of any injunction in this case, a written statement, under oath, setting forth in detail the manner in which Defendants have complied with the injunction;

3. That an accounting be directed to determine Defendants' profits resulting from their trademark infringement, false designation of origin, and unfair competition which are the subject

1 of this suit, that Defendants' profits be disgorged to Plaintiff, and that such amounts be
2 multiplied pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117;

3 4. That Plaintiff recover damages, in an amount to be determined at trial, resulting
4 from Defendants' trademark infringement, false designation of origin, and unfair competition;

5 5. That such damages be trebled as a result of Defendants' willful, deliberate,
6 intentional and/or in bad faith actions to the extent allowable by law;

7 6. That Plaintiff recover its costs of this action;

8 7. That Plaintiff be awarded its reasonable attorneys' fees in accordance with 15
9 U.S.C. § 1117(a), 17 U.S.C. § 1203 and Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 14250, and any and all other

Mortgage Rates
Mortgage rates are below the levels of a year ago. They have fallen in recent weeks after climbing last summer when the Federal Reserve began talking about reducing the monthly bond purchases it was making to keep long-term borrowing rates low.

Housing Making A Comeback
Housing inventory remains at low levels across the United States. With the average home selling in under 30 days demand is driving up once dismal housing prices.

Dear Bruno Pasceri, President/CEO:

I am writing on behalf of ERATE.com, Inc., located in Santa Clara, CA. Publisher of financial rates.

ERATE.com, Inc owns the federal trademark registration for ERATE. The federal registration 4,041,200 was issued October 18, 2011 for use in Class 36.

The purpose of this letter is to place you on notice regarding your company's unauthorized and infringing use of the trademark eRates. I am informed of the following:

Your company has been offering mortgage services under the name eRates Mortgage.

Demand is hereby made that you cease any continuing or future uses of your trademark, eRates. Absent a prompt resolution, I will recommend that my lawyer take appropriate legal action to protect my proprietary rights. Any further infringing activity occurring after the receipt of this letter shall be considered willful infringement.

My company vigorously protects its trademarks. As your attorney can advise you, infringement of trademark exposes you to extensive liability. Be advised that 15 U.S.C. §1117(a) provides that my company may recover all profits derived from your infringing activity as well as full court costs and reasonable attorney fees. If necessary, my company is prepared to seek temporary restraining orders, injunctions, and other appropriate relief in addition to compensation for damages. Your attorney can undoubtedly advise you as to the relevant details. If I do not hear from you within seven days of the date of this letter, I will be compelled to take appropriate legal action to protect my company's trademarks and to receive just compensation for any damage suffered. I look forward to hearing from you or your attorney.

Sincerely,

W. Jeff Howard, CEO
